

MULTIMEDIA ART CLASS

KATE PHILLIPS

SUPPLY LIST

This is a suggested list of supplies but do not think you have to buy them all at once! We work in a variety of different mediums and part of the fun is discovering new tools and materials. Students are encouraged to use any medium or combination of materials they desire.

Please bring a plastic table cover, drop cloth, or shower curtain.

Collage:

- Rigid panel for base - canvas board, Corrugated plastic (used for yard signs, also known as coroplast™), matte board, wood panels; any sturdy, rigid material that's not too heavy to hang is appropriate.
- Acrylic medium (Liquitex®) or Mod Podge® Matte or Satin finish
- Disposable brushes and/or cheap brushes for applying glue
- Recycled foam trays for paint and glue
- Assortment of papers – use your imagination! a few ideas: Buttons, printed materials books, patterns, old cook books, Craft foam, Fabric, old jewelry, paper napkins, scrapbook papers, Flower petals, Leaves, Magazine pages, Photographs, Playing cards, Postcards, Stickers, String, Tissue paper.....
- Paint: acrylics, fluid acrylics, watercolor (will not adhere on layered collages but is good for backgrounds), alcohol inks + alcohol, Tulip Slick™ dimensional paint, stamp pad, acrylic ink
- Paint Brushes, assortment of acrylic or watercolor brushes. Other mark making materials such as Q-tips, straws, plastic forks, etc

Drawing tools:

Micron® pens, Posca® pens (white + colors), Pandafly® paint markers, Sharpies® (fine point black + colors/metallics) Uniball® Signo pens, oil pastels, watercolor pencils, pencils, erasers

Other – Good to have on hand: scissors, X-acto knife, ruler, pencil, eraser, masking tape, plastic water cup, baby wipes

Extras: Gelli® plate, brayer, stamps, sponges and materials to create textures, assortment of papers: rice, tissue, deli, etc.

....A HUGE IMAGINATION

Buy supplies online:

www.cheapjoes.com - good source for fine art supplies

amazon.com - Huge assortment of affordable art supplies

www.dickblick.com (or in-store, Tampa, 1502 N. Westshore Boulevard, Tampa, FL 33607)

Joann's (more expensive but check coupons and download app)

Michael's (expensive but coupons and sales are great)